

CyberData's Line Of Secure Access Control Endpoints For SMB Deliver Simple, Safe, Secure Access Control Using New Or Existing VoIP Phone Systems

If you can hook up an IP Phone, you can hook up a CyberData Secure Access Control Endpoint

- No set up, monthly monitoring or licensing fees
- Up to 500 users
- Works with on premise or hosted VoIP phone systems
- Blacklisted code alert
- High level of security, with encrypted RFID cards
- Autoprovisions user data to multiple devices
- Can be used as stand-alone

011433 Secure Access Control Keypad

011425 SIP RFID Access Control Endpoint

011426 SIP RFID Keypad Access Control Endpoint

CyberData makes Secure Access Control Endpoints for the SMB Market. Our goal is to provide affordable endpoints that deliver Access Control, using a new or existing VoIP phone system.

CyberData maintains one of the most comprehensive lists of IP PBX servers certified to work with CyberData devices